Adlai, the Straddler!

WE HAVE A FEW RECORDS THAT THE DEMOCRATS WON'T SNEEZE AT.

WE WILL BEGIN BY POLISHING DOWN THIS ROUGH-HEWN STONE THAT HE

May not be Palmed off on an Unsuspecting Public as a Clean Cut, Polished Pillar of Marbleized Fineness.

"I WAS ONCE A GREENBACKER,"

A great many of the Democratic papers of the South and Republican papers of the North seem to be putting themselves to a great deal of trouble and are making a hue and cry about Gen. James B. Weaver. They are manufacturing quite a lot of campaign hodge-podge about Weaver. They have gone so far as to publish a lot of charges that they claimed were sworn to by the parties whose names they had trumped up regarding Weaver's record during the late war at Pulaski, Tenn. Upon investigation we find the charges wholly untrue, as you will notice in the columns of this paper.

Now it is not our purpose to retaliate. We do not want to be understood as fighting back. We do want to be understood, however, as occupying the place of an editor of a paper whose business it is to give the people such information as we think is of importance to them in deciding their choice for men to represent them at the Capitol of the United States, and in doing so we propose to give our authority definitely. Our authority in this case is the Journals of Congress, that are read and approved at each day's session of the House. This evidence all must agree is unimpeachable.

During a debate in the House April 26, 1879 (Congressional Record, page 749), Mr. Adlai Stevenson, candidate for Vice-President on the Democratic ticket, made a speech on what is known as the "Southern Claims Commission." The reader will understand that the business of this commission was to take evidence in cases where a person put in claims against the government for property destroyed by the army during the late war, and to investigate also, we presume, the validity of the claims that the people of the South had against the government for a special tax paid during the war, which you will remember was paid back to us last winter. If this political blatherskite, Adlai, had of had his way, however, as is shown by the speech made on the subject, we would never have been reimbursed for what was forced from us during the war. Listen to what this candidate for Southern votes has to say on the subject:

"I pass now, Mr. Chairman, to the discussion of the amendment offered by the gentleman from Wisconsin (Mr. Bragg), which abolishes the Southern claims commission. That amendment commands my earnest support. I gave it my vote in committee, and will do so again when the vote is taken in the House. * * * If the amendment proposed by the gentleman from Wisconsin shall prevail, then this commission, with its power to oppress and defraud, will expire with the present fiscal year. * * Mr. Chairman, if any necessity ever existed for the establishment of the Southern Claims Commission, that necessity has ceased to exist. I think I am warranted in asserting that with but rare exceptions all claims possessing but the semblance of merit have long since been passed upon by this commission. We have had fourteen years of peace, and yet it is insisted that this commission shall be continued for the sole purpose of allowing claims against the government for property taken or destroyed during the war. * * * In my judgment, Mr. Chairman, not only should Congress by adopting the amendment proposed by the gentleman from Wisconsin, Mr. Bragg, refuse to make further appropriations for the continuation of the Southern Claims Commission, but as a matter of justice to a people burdened with debt and taxation an amendment should be incorporated into our Federal Constitution forever prohibiting the payment of these claims either by direction of courts or by acts of Congress." This sounds very nice for a man asking for Southern votes. But to be brief we will continue with his record, and say we wonder if Stevenson is any better now than when he supported Weaver for the Presidency in 1880? Mr. Stevenson dare not deny that he ran on a Greenback ticket for Congress in four different elections, and he made a speech in Bloomington, Ill., in September, 1878, in which he used the following remarkable words:

"The national greenback party in its convention at Lincoln on the 3rd of September, did me the honor to place my name before the people as a candidate for congress. I have accepted that nomination and no effort of mine shall be spared in arousing the people to the necessity for financial reform demanded by the platform of that convention. Its principles are not new to me. Both by voice and vote I stand pledged in favor of these reforms. While your representative in the Forty-fourth Congress I voted for the remonetization of silver and for the repeal of the resumption act. I regarded the resumption act as the Pandora's box from which have sprung a thousand evils to curse the American people. This platform demands the repeal of the resumption act and the substitution of greenbacks for the national bank notes. We demand a full supply of legal tender currency, which shall be receivable in payments of all debts, public and private. We demand a full remonetization of the silver dollar as one of the coins of the country. There should be no limitation in the coinage. But it should be placed side by side with the gold dollar. There is not a single argument in favor of the proposition that the national bank monopoly should stand, but there are many grave objections to the perpetuation of the system. It is a dangerous experiment to the business and institutions of the country to place so much power in the hands of this giant monopoly. It is too great a consolidation or centralizaton of the moneyed power.

"Now fellow citizens, I have called your attention to some of the most necessary reforms in the policy of the government which the people of this country are now demanding, and which their political leaders have hitherto refused, the absolute and unconditional repeal of the resumption act; the full and unlimited remonetization of the silver dollar; the retirement of the notes of the national banks, and the substitution of greenbacks in their place."

Furthermore the Congressional Record shows that Stevenson was one of the thirteen Geenback members who was led by Gen. Weaver in 1879. Every time the democratic press strike at Weaver it hits Stevenson. He was one of the thirteen greenbackers that refused to enter the democratic caucus, that refused to vote for the democratic speaker of the House. On page 7367 of the Record: He was dubbed by democrats of the House as "One of the thirteen leprous greenbackers who voted with the republicans."

Thus we might go on until we could fill a whole newspaper with this acrobatic political jack-snapper's record, but it is beginning already to stink to the olfactory organs of honest Southern men, so we desist and will save some for another dose in the future. If pains and patients will dig up his history we say we are determined that our people shall know what manner of man they are asked to vote for who is on all sides of all questions. A straddler and everything else applicable to a demagogue.—Nashville Toiler.

THE TIDE IS TURNING.

NUGENT THE LEADING CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR.

HOGG AND CLARK NOT "IN IT".

HOGG MEN ARE COMING OVER TO NUGENT TO BEAT CLARK.

VICTORY IS CERTAIN.

TEMPLE, Tex.,—As an index of how the railroad employees are feeling in the gubernatorial canvass, the following may be given: Dr. Searcey, a solicitor for signatures to the Clark club roll, took in the Santa Fe shops. The first five men he approached were Clark men and signed his paper. The next one was a Hogg man. About 100 employees were solicited to sign, but not another Clark nor Hogg man could he find. They expressed themselves as indifferent or for Nugent, by far the greater number being for the third party man.

To the Dallas News:

Judge Nugent will beat Hogg in Cass county from 800 to 1000 votes. Judge Clark would get the same vote that Judge Nugent will get here had not the people decided that the solution of the Hogg question is to vote for Judge Nugent. Judge Clark has many warm friends here who will still vote for him in November.

J. B. HENDERSON.

***

The vote of three boxes in Milam county as given by the Rockdale Exchange is:

At Bethlehem this county, the vote will be Nugent 120, Clark 50, Hogg 0.

Sandy Grove, Milam county, will be thus: Nugent, 66, Hogg 9, Clark 0.

Conley's Box this county, Nugent 85, Hogg 5, Clark 0.

VICTORY IN SIGHT.

A Letter From Manager Bentley.

To the People's party in Texas

In response to numerous inquiries made to me on the subject I wish to state to you in this public manner as follows:

1st. Our friends throughout the state are standing firm and there is not the slightest indication of a break in our ranks.

2nd. The reports to me from our county chairmen all over Texas, show that we are daily gaining in strength.

The feeling between the Hogg men and the Clark men is hourly growing intensely and all changes from either of these parties will be to our benefit. The democrats are hopelessly divided and this is our opportunity to take control of the political fortunes of the state.

3rd. The same reports indicate that the republicans are also as hopelessly divided. It is not true that they are going to vote for Clark. Hogg will be supported by quite a number of them, while Nugent will be supported by a large number of them. Already we have many thousands of them enrolled on our party clubs and a large number of them are now actively canvassing the state in the interest of our state ticket.

4th. Unless our county chairmen are fooling themselves, which is not probable, we have already enlisted with us in the state a sufficient number of voters to insure the success of our ticket. But we must not be satisfied with a bare plurality of the votes cast in November. Let us each one resolve to win over to our side one more voter at least between this and election day, to the end that we may elect our state ticket by a large majority of all the votes to be cast in the state and at the same time give the electoral vote of Texas to our gallant leaders, Weaver and Field.

H. L. BENTLEY,

AN INFAMOUS SENTIMENT,

By Which Love of Home and Pure Patriotism is Abolished by the Governor of Georgia.

Governor Northern, in a recent speech, gave utterance to the following inhuman, barbarous utterances which cannot be read without a shudder of horror. Listen to what he says:

"Strike your wife," who in her youth gave you her warmest affection. "Strike your wife," who has been your nurse through every hour of sickness and your comfort and joy through every hour of health. "Strike your wife," who has shared with you every moment of poverty and distress, and who, if you have reached comfort and independence, helped you to reach it and helped you to enjoy it.

Strike this faithful, tender, pure and loyal woman—strike her cruelly and brutally, strike her as a brute beast would be ashamed to strike—but don't you strike the dear old Democratic party.

But that is not the worst of it.

What else did he say in that speech? "Strike your child, which to night will kneel at its mother's knee, robed in white, lisping the prayer of infancy, 'Now I lay me down to sleep.'"

"Yes strike your child"—innocent, pure and loving. Not only that, strike her as she's clothed in white, typical of the unblemished sinlessness of her being. Concerning which the Gallilean said: "of such is the Kingdom of Heaven." Not only that, strike her as she kneels at her mother's knee as the evening quiet shadows gather about the old homestead and the quiet stars begin to look through the tree tops where the katydids are singing. Not only that, strike her as she opens her sweet lips in that first prayer of childhood—"Now I lay me down to sleep."

Strike her as her tender mind communes with the good God under her mother's saintly teachings. Kneeling at that mother's knee robed in white, the most innocent, touching and endearing scene in all the domestic life of the sons of men!

Yes, strike her; smite the praying lips into silence heartlessly with the malice and callousness of a very devil. Yes, do all this, "but don't you strike the dear old Democratic party."—National Watchman.

Leg. p. 29.)

(ART. 1673 R. S.) JUDGES AND CLERKS APPOINTED, ETC.

The presiding officer of each election precinct shall, on or before the day of election, select from among the qualified voters of the precinct, two judges and two clerks, such election to be made from the different political parties, if demanded, as far as practicable, and there be present a sufficient number of the party making such demand who are willing and competent to serve in such position. That each presiding judge, before balloting begins, shall designate two of said judges to be counting judges, and such presiding judge and said remaining judge shall be the receiving judges, of election, and said presiding judge shall designate two of said clerks to be receiving clerks and two of said clerks to be canvassing clerks of said election. 2nd. MODE OF RECEIVING AND COUNTING VOTES.

The same method shall be observed with each ticket, and the counting shall continue thus until all the ballots in the box are counted. And then the counting judges shall securely close ballot box No. 1, and deliver the same to the receiving judges, and receive from the receiving judges ballot box No. 2, and go on in the same manner until the polls are closed and all the ballots are counted. Provided, that any political party may select a representative man, who may be admitted as a witness of such counting.

It shall be the duty of one polled of the judges to announce to the voters present the total number of votes at each change of the boxes; but the judges, clerks and witnesses shall make oath that they will make no statement nor give any information of any kind as to the number of votes polled for any office or person nor the name of any person voted for, nor any other fact touching in any way to show the state of the polls at any time previous to the closing of the polls of said election on the day of the same.

(ACT. 1696, R. S.) COUNTING THE VOTES.

The campaign circular is abroad.

The Hogg democracy is getting scared.

Gov. Hogg wants an oppointive commission. He has one but it is out of a job.

Gov. Hogg's administration cost the State of Texas $1,045,000 more than that of Gov. Ross.

WHY are we blamed for supporting Judge Nugent for governor? Bill Shaw, of Dallas, is against him.

Nugent has the support of 165,000 voters of Texas according to the tabulating of returns last week by chairman Bently.

Gen. Weaver addressed a crowd of 3000 people at Pulaska Tenn., last Saturday. The Denver Rocky Mountain News gives a complete account of the speaking. It says that Weaver completely vindicated himself and the immense audience went wild with delight.

The candidates for county offices who were at Lebanon on the night of Oct. 7, are very thankful to the ladies and gentlemen who attended the meeting and to Rev. R. C. Horn for giving the use of his large and comfortable tent as a place of meeting. The country about Lebanon is one of the richest and most beautiful on Earth.

Pastry Without Butter.

Light, flaky and digestible pie crust and all kinds of fine pastry can be made with Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder without butter or with one half the usual portion, if preferred, or with a small quantity of lard or other shortening as desired. Pie crust made in this way is more wholesome and digestible besides being more economical and easier prepared in addition to saving all the butter if desired. One-third the flour is also dispensed with, and the crust is rolled that much thinner, the raising qualities of Dr. Price's Powder swelling it to the requisite thickness. Those who enjoy the appetizing qualities of the delicious home made pie will rejoice to know this secret.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder is the only powder that contains the white of eggs.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder is reported by all authorities as free from Ammonia, Alum, or any other adulterant. In fact, the purity of this ideal powder has never been questioned.

"The War Is Over."

Messrs. Gough and Greer are trying to arouse southern prejudice against the people's party, by referring to Weaver's war record. Thirty years after the beginning of that cruel epoch the masses of the people are trying to elminate all thoughts of that bloody strife except to give honor to those who bravely bore the hardships on either side. The people's party is the first since the war to honor our own southland by placing a one legged confederate soldier on the national ticket. The Blue and the Gray—those who tramped the field of action—have tenderly clasped hands across the chasm and mingled their tears in its fast receding stream. Notwithstanding this noble effort these gentlemen continue in their effort to revive the hatred of the past. The plutocratic press, backed by millions of money, to prevent a new deal, is teeming with abuse of Weaver and Field. The southern press slanders Weaver while the northern press slanders Field, all working harmoniously to the same end.

When will the democrats of the south get their eyes open? When will they cease to vote according to the dictates of the north-eastern leaders who are reveling in the wealth of our glorious country?

Why did they vote for Frank Blair for president in 1868? Blair was the man who followed Sherman on his "march to the sea" and helped to devastate the south, an act which these same gentlemen have so often denounced.

Did not these gentlemen vote for General Hancock?

Hancock was in every prominent battle on the Potomac and in Virginia. He arrested Joe Brown and many other promi-Georgians. He run Bob Toombs out of that state, fed Jeff Davis on bread and water at Fortress Monroe, and hung Wirz and Mrs. Suart, all of which has been donounced by these gentlemen.

Did not the democracy support Horace Greely?

Greely was an abolitionist and used his pen against the south and its institutions before the war, all of which these gentlemen denounced.

Why in the name of Heaven don't these gentlemen be consistent?

"The war is over" and it is the duty of every patriotic citizen to confine himself to the present and the future.

People from every part of the union have established their homes upon the fertile soil of the Lone Star State and are striving to place her as the apex among the galaxy of states.

We ask no one to forget the patriotism of the past, but we are in favor of a forgiving spirit, which alone is conducive of prosperity and happiness.

One of the Hogg candidates in this county has a great deal to say about people's party speakers selling literature and badges. This Hogg gentleman should remember that our speakers have no state administration to issue campaign thunder at the expense of the tax payers. It is a notable fact that the present regime has cost the state thousands of dollars more than Ross' administration.

Judge Nugent Speaks

OUT IN NO UNCERTAIN TONE.

His Heart and Brain is With the People.

CAMPAIGN FALSEHOODS NAILED.

FORT WORTH, Tex., Oct. 11.—The following has been given out:

FORT WORTH, Tex., Oct. 11.—I have learned from reliable sources that reports of an intention on my part to withdraw from the race for governor has been put in circulation in almost every section of the state. Evidently this has been done to mislead our people and induce them to abandon our ticket. But the originators of the discreditable scheme will learn that people whose honest political convictions caused them to leave the democratic party of Texas cannot be induced to return by a flimsy falsehood. No, I will not withdraw, but will remain in the field until the end of the fight. Of this our people may feel absolutely assured. Under no circumstances will I withdraw.

One additional matter I desire to call attention to: It is charged that I am in collusion with Judge Clark. This is absolutely false. Last year Judge Clark's speech indicated that his views, except as to the land loan and subtreasury scheme, did not differ materially from those now held by the people's party. When the present campaign opened, therefore, I naturally favored his candidacy over that of Gov. Hogg, more especially as the friendly relations existing between us prompted me to support him, as against the man whose administration of public affairs I could not approve. I have believed for years that no third party movement could be successful, unless it attracted to itself the united support of organized labor. When, therefore, the labor bodies of the United States came together in the St. Louis convention and adopted a platform of principles substantially agreeing with those previously promulgated by the people's party, I felt that the time for a third party movement had come. Still, as the alliance people held the key to the situation in Texas, I waited to see what they would do before casting my lot with the new party, many of them hesitated, however, hoping to make the fight in the democratic party, but they were eventually kicked out by the party management, and are now zealous workers for reform in the ranks of the people's party.

I believed, myself, most sincerely that Gov. Hogg was the determined enemy of the alliance, and I believed just as sincerely that the alliance was doing more for good government in Texas than all other agencies combined. I was, therefore, strongly in favor of Clark's nomination; but when his Weatherford speech disclosed his views on the question of the commission law, although I still preferred him to Hogg, I felt that I could not consistently take any active part in the canvass for his nomination. When, however, the movement for the full organization of the people's party got under headway, and I found the alliance people going into it almost universally, I was glad of the opportunity to find in it an escape from the machine politics which have been a curse to Texas for so many years. Judge Clark has since seen fit to subordinate his views to those of the national democracy, and in doing so he has put himself seemingly at a greater distance from the people's party than Gov. Hogg. Gov. Hogg's platform is quite meaningless, however, since it antagonizes the national democratic platform and could not possibly, for that reason, have the slightest effect on national polico. It is a clear case of political impotence. This, however, is of small concern to our people, who are not worrying themselves over the shallow pretences of the Hogg platform, or the so-called "Jeffersonian" democracy of Clark.

Looking to state issues, we believe that Hogg and Clark represent extreme views, and we are not responsible for the fight they are making on each other. Clark deals with us like a gentleman. He hurls no vituperation at us and we should not be blamed because we decline to abuse him. His excellency and the senior senator from Texas seemingly enjoy a monopoly of the business of dirt slinging—the senator apparently claiming for himself the exclusive right to

"Deal damnation round
On all he deems his foes."

But for Coke we should all exercise much charity. His senatorial labors have never been very fruitful of results; but we have heretofore given him the credit of having a fair supply of brains. If his deliverances in the present campaign have disclosed a lack of that useful article, we should remember that they afford also unmistakable evidences of senility. How else can we reasonably account for the ferocity and incoherence which characterize his rambling and frenzied harangues?

T. L. NUGENT.

A Desperate Case.

We hereby serve notice on you Hogg fellows to return those stolen planks, or there will be a fuss in camps.—McKinney DEMOCRAT.

Come, neighbor, don't be so hard on them, their case is desperate, and it's any port in a storm with them. The trap was set for you people's party fellows, but strange as it seems, it is no stranger than true, the P. P. fellows have their good eyes on the gun this time.—Denton Monitor.

THE democratic executive committee was in session last Monday. Mr. S. Hattler, the chairman was put on trial and threatened with excommunication for being a Clark man. Some of the wiser heads were listened to, however, and he was allowed to remain. Mr. Beverly said that some of the county ticket was already in danger and he cautioned them to "go slow." It is now time for Waller Baker, of the Hogg state committee to raise a kick.

Important to Visitors of The Dallas State Fair.

M. L. Philipson the enterprising tobacconist of Dallas, desires to inform the people of McKinney and Collin county, that he has secured the entire cigar privilege at the fair grounds and smokers can rest easy that Mr. Philipson will see to it, that they are not imposed upon. Only the most popular brands of cigars will be sold there. Foremost of his nickel cigars will be the "Texas Standard." People whose means will not permit them to smoke 5ct cigars, will find the Old Glory Cheroots, 5 for 10cts which are equal to a great many nickel cigars sold by competitors. In Havana cigars The Metropolitans, Owls and Hoffman House Bouquet will be found for sale. Insist on getting what you call for.

While at Farmersville last week we met Mr. T. H. Kosure who is at work securing material for his patent bridge. He will soon put in a bridge north of McKinney. We hear his bridge higly spoken of on all sides. Other counties are calling on him and he will make many contracts in a short time. Success to him.

Fire at Plano.

PLANO, Collin Co., Tex., Oct. 10.—J. M. Carlisle & Bro's. corn crib and steam sheller, with 1400 bushels of corn in the shuck belonging to several firms, was consumed by fire. Also the Central's stock pens, which were situated just north of the corn crib. The largest part of the pens burned.

J. M. Carlisle & Bro.'s loss on crib and sheller is estimated at $600; uninsured. Seventy-five bushels of corn in crib fully insured. Killingsworth Bros. had 600 bushels of corn in crib fully insured. H. Negbaur lost 500 bushels of corn; no insurance. Harrison & Davis of McKinney lost 200 bushels of corn; no insurance.

THE fire originated from a spark of the engine running the sheller, which set fire to a lot of loose shucks near the crib. About fifty sacks of shelled corn and the engine was saved. C. F. Saigling's lumber yard had a narrow escape from being burned, and it was only by hard work and tearing down a part of the Central's stock pens that the fire was prevented from reaching the piles of lumber, the wind being in the right direction.

Evidently the Hogg democracy is scared in Collin county judging from a campaign circular issued by the great religeous press.

☞ The Nickel Store has just received a brilliant lot of toys for the holidays. Mrs. Bowin knows exactly what the little fellows want and never fails to please them. Call and see the assortment.

DEMOCRACY WANING IN COLLIN COUNTY.

The Great Falling Off in the Democratic Primary Vote Proves that the PEOPLE'S PARTY IS LARGELY IN THE ASCENDENCY.

Last Saturday the democratic primary, to select a candidate for state senator for Collin and Hunt counties was held. The vote was very light in Collin. At many of the boxes no election was held. There were only about 1000 votes cast in the county, which shows a decrease of about 2700 votes since the 30th day of last July.

Thus it will be seen that a great change of political sentiment has been wrought in the minds of the people since that time, which proves that the peoples party is marching to victory in Collin county.

The ticket sent out by the Hogg men had a great deal to do with the status of the vote. Hundreds of good democrats throughout the county refused to swallow the iron clad oath. It is surprising that even a lot of Hogg men would undertake to palm off such a ticket on a liberty loving people. In order that our readers may know all about the character of the scheme we print the pledge and ticket in full as follows:

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

The voter of this ticket pledges himself to vote for the democratic nominees at the November election.

N. B.—If this pledge is detached this ticket will not be counted.

FOR STATE SENATOR.
J. L. DOGGETT.
C. H. YOKUM.

In McKinney the Clark democrats refused to vote the above ticket, and had plain tickets printed without the pledge and "N. B." attached. These tickets were freely voted and as far as we have learned were not cast aside as per the "N. B."

A little scheme of the Hogg democracy was nipped in the bud last week. Some of their leaders made an effort to induce a certain gentleman to become an independent candidate for sheriff in order to beat Todd Warden. That gentleman promptly declined the honor of being made a tool of these narrow minded and selfish fellows.

There is a little campaign document gotton out, as we presume, by the Hogg democracy of this county which has just reached this office. We will pay our respects to the scheme, and the gentlemen who indorse it, further on. There are a lot of fellows, whom we happen to know, who are posing as puritans but who violate almost every principle which they affect to embrace.

A certain gentleman who is a candidate for the legislature in Collin county takes occasion to charge his opponent with being an E. J. Davis police, flopper etc. Futher he carries a lot of newspaper clippings to prove that Weaver was a brute and a thief during the late unpleasantness. This same gentleman will hardly tell about an effort being made not long ago to organize a gin trust, in the Northern part of the county, to raise the price of bagging ties and ginning.

Some gentlemen are dearly in love with their countrymen, especially with their neighbors (?)

We were pleased to hear our young friend D. A. Russell speak at the Court house last Saturday evening. Mr. Russell is well posted and a very gentlemanly speaker. The people's party can well feel proud of this young advocate of its principles. He invited discussions with any opponent but heard no response. He spoke at several other points in the county and had good audiences. He was listened to by about 100 voters at Melissa Friday night.

Mr. Russell lives at Little Elm in Denton County and we hope to hear from him again soon. After he finished his speech at McKinney he left for Denton County where he had an engagement to meet Doctor Mathis, of Rock Hill.

Fox & Love are authorized to give every purchaser of $1.00 worth of groceries one of those fine "Texas Standard" cigars for 5 cts. Be sure and avail yourself of this liberal offer.

The manly fight now being made by Candidates Kirkpatrick and Branch proves that the people's party made no mistake in choosing them as standard bearers.

Billy Barron is running a splendid race. Everybody who knows Mr. Barron, is proud of his past record. After receiving the nomination he is losing no time to show his appreciation. He has been very busy in moving his crop.

A meeting was called at Willow Springs last Saturday night to organize a Hogg democratic club. Only about 8 or 10 of the faithful showed up Judge Abernathy and Capt. T. F. Mangum were the speakers.

Uncle J. B. Marshall of Copeville, and candidate for Justice of the peace in that precinct writes that E. L. Wood made a rousing speech at Nevada a few nights ago in the interest of the people's party. We learn that Mr. Marshall is making a strong race for Justice of the peace. Everybody likes Uncle Joe and believe that he will make an honest and faithful officer.

Remember Smith Bros. do not only make prescriptions a specialty, but also fine cigars a specialty. Call for "Texas Standard" there and you will get more than your money's worth.

We learn that R. H. (Bob) Thompson is an independent candidate for county attorney of Grayson county. Bob is a talented and energetic young lawyer and will do honor to his constituency should he be elected. He is a brother of Dr. F. M. Thompson of our city and an uncle of Editor Clint Thompson of the Gazette. Success to you Robert.

How to make money.—Buy your wall paper and paints at the City Drug Store and also smoke "Texas Standard" when you will get a 10 cent cigar for 5 cts.

A yearling Poland China pig arrived from Ohio last Monday consigned to H. E. Singleton, of Lebanon, in this county. It weighs 820 lbs., and cost its owner about $150. Mr. Singleton deserves great credit in his effort to introduce and encourage good Hogg breeding in Texas.

The "Chicken King" knows a good fowl as soon as he lays his hand on it but he also displayed a knowledge of good cigars when he purchased those "Texas Standard." Go and smoke with him. If you don't know where he is located, just inquire at A. J. Krause's.

Wiley Boyer of Denton county was in the city last Tuesday. He tells a wonderful story about a cat fish which he caught out of Little Elm. The fish was about 24 inches long and in its flesh near the back bone he found a flat piece of pure gold about the size of a dime but square. He cannot suggest any reasonable theory about the freak of nature.

A sure cure for indigestion. After eating a hearty meal at A. T. Wilson & Co's smoke a "Texas Standard."

B. F. Ivy was in to see us yesterday from Josephine, and informed us that a people's party club of twenty-six members was organized there recently. A new alliance will be organized soon.

NOTICE TO CANDIDATES.

The DEMOCRAT will print 20,000 people's party tickets, and 15,000 mixed tickets. Candidates who have their names on all the tickets will be charged $1.50 and those who only have their names on the mixed tickets will be charged $1.00. Precinct candidates will be charged 75 cents. All candidates will please send in their names at once. Precinct candidates will please give the number of district or precinct.

R. L. Waddill is too well known and too modest to say much, but he desires for the smoking public to know that he also sells "Texas Standard" cigars.

Rev. A. M. Simms has returned from Belton and will fill his pulpit on Sabbath as usual. He reports a good meeting of the Baptist State Convention. He invites all his members to be present on Sabbath at the special service at 11, in the interest of the centennial work.

NOTICE.

J. W. Marshall, of Farmersville, will preach at the Christian church this city, Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7-15 p. m. Let there be a good attendance.

Watch Lost.

On last Friday W. Y. Morton of Weston lost a 9 3-4 oz silver, open faced watch in McKinney. The watch had Elgin works and bears a picture of a large gold elk on the outside of the case. It is a stem winder and setter. The finder will kindly return it to this office or to its owner.

W. B. Kendle in order to manage his increasing business properly has taken a partner unto himself by the name of McWhirter and they have both decided in order to please the smoking public to handle "Texas Standard."

Prohibition Speaking.

Hon. E. C. Heath, of Rockwall, will speak in McKinney on next Monday night in favor of the state and national prohibition ticket. Mr. Heath is an able speaker who will not fail to interest his hearers. Everybody invited, especially the ladies.

A Fine Display.

A representative of the DEMOCRAT was invited into the large hardware establishment of J. P. Dowell's last Monday to view the new line of goods which had just arrived and which was being placed in position by Mr. Dowell and his clerks. Besides his large stock of hardware, tinware, cutlery etc., could be seen the elegant line of goods for holiday and wedding presents of all kinds and prices. We do not believe that any house in North Texas can eclipse the fine display of our worthy townsman, J. P. Dowell.

E. W. Morton, the new proprietor of the Foote House invites everybody to examine his fine line of cigars. Foremost in his nickel case are the "Texas Standard."

Justice Precinct Convention.

WYLIE, Collin Co., Tex., Oct. 12.—This morning about 8 o'clock a negro who was picking cotton for P. I. Koger, about a half mile from town, was approached by four unknown men and commanded to hold up his hands. This he refused to do and they opened fire on him. One ball took effect. WOMAN!

WOMAN is a marvelous creature. In her we have the most complex, most perfect, most beautiful work of God.

Her nature is cast in a more perfect mould than man's. It contains a larger proportion of the finer elements that link the race to a higher and better destiny.

She embodies in the most perfect degree the graces of modesty, patience, gratitude and devotion. These attributes have won for her, under the benign spirit of the Gospel of Christ, that exalted social position for which her Creator intended her.

Perfect as in her moral nature, it is no more admirable than the physical structure that holds it.

This intricate piece of mechanism, so finely balanced, so graceful, so compact of texture, so perfect in every detail, excites our wonder and awakens our admiration more and more, as we become aware of its completeness.

The Almighty created woman for a high and holy mission, He implanted in her a separate system of organic life, and prescribed duties for her to perform. To perfect His design and better enable her to fulfill her sacred trust, He blended the nobler attributes of mind with perfection of form. These qualities were made sympathetic. The perfection of one depends on the others, the weakness of one affects them all, and an injury to one throws the entire machinery of her multiple nature out of its intended balance.

The original mental and physical harmony of woman has not been maintained. While she has developed intellectually, expanded socially and advanced morally, she has sadly degenerated physically.

Therefore we have prepared and put upon the market

DEW DROP No. 2, Specially for Women.

This great remedy is wholly composed of Vegetable Ingredients, all of which are recognized by the medical profession to be the most potent herbal remedies known.

"DEW-DROP" operates directly on the mucous membranes of the body by its specific effects on the vaso-moter nerve center, imparing to capillary blood vessels of every mucous surface a healthy tone and elacticity. Every organ of human body is either lined or covered by a mucous membrane, which fact explains the remarkably extensive field of operation which this remedy has, and the numerous ills for which it is an absolute specific, and can be relied on always to permanently cure Liquor and Opium Habits, Acute or Chronic Catarrh, Neuralgia, Heart Diseases, Loss of Womanhood, Loss of Appetite, Loss of Sleep, Indigestion, Irregular Suppressed or Painful Menstration, Sexual Impotency, Sick Headache, Nervous or General Debility. "DEW-DROP" not only cures but prevents the above diseases.

Therefore use it sick or well. We repeat that "DEW-DROP" gives rest after a day's work, and sweet sleep at night.

It cures all nervous diseases and hysteria in women, restores loss of memory, drives away the blues or despondency, cures alcoholic or Morphine habit, etc. Should "DEW-DROP" fall short of what we claim, your money will be refunded.

General Weaver at Home.

Hon. Fred. G. White, of Iowa, democratic congressman, is from General Weaver's district, known as the "Sixth Iowa." He is one of the ablest new men in Congress, and his opinion on men and things is especially valuable at the present time.

A representative of the Watchman having asked Mr. White's opinion of General Weaver, the People's Party candidate for the Presidency, received from him the following reply:

"A regard for actual facts as they exist compels me to differ from those who declare General Weaver to be a weak candidate. He is responsible in a larger degree than any man living for the growth and the present status of the third party move. He has spent the best part of his life in expounding its principles and spreading its gospel. The man who calls Weaver a weak stick either does not know the man or doesn't mean to be fair. While we may differ and differ widely in our political convictions, that ought not to prevent us from recognizing merit wherever it may exist. I regard General Weaver as a most remarkable man. Not only is he thouroughly honest and sincere in his convictions, but he is the best equiped, mentally and physically, to carry on a campaign on a large scale of probably any man in all America. A mind bubbling over with knowledge and information, reinforced with a physique equal in fibre and toughness to barb wire, he is enabled to defy the elements and withstand the discomforts of travel, and thus bear up under a weight that would crush a dozen ordinary men. He can talk to out-door audiences for three months in succession, losing neither flesh nor his voice. He is genial in disposition, logical and philosophical in the presentation of a subject. While in Congress he was set upon by the lions of both parties, and to his credit it stands recorded in the imperishable legislative records of this country that he vanquished them one and all. I can not get it through my head or find it in my heart to call such a man weak."

As God Is His Judge.

NASHVILLE, TENN., Oct. 8.—In the course of his speech at Pulaski, General Weaver said, regarding the charges against him: "As God is my Judge I never did in Pulaski one single thing that is charged, except levying of money and I pronounce the charges unqualified falsehoods. The war is over and I come on a mission of fraternity. They said I dare not come. I know I dared come and would have come had the threats been a thousand times stronger."

Bexar Fusion Ticket.

SAN ANTONIO, Oct. 8.—The regular republican county executive committee to-day endorsed the foliowing county ticket:

District judge, George H. Noonan; district attorney, George Paschal; district clerk, Nat Lewis; county judge, Bryan Callaghan; county judge, B. J. Dewitt; county clerk, Thad W. Smith; sheriff, T. P. McCall; assessor, L. Huth, jr., collector, Jose Casiano; treasurer, Ed Froebese; surveyor, T. C. Nelson; representatives, W. C. McElwee, J. L. Slayden; justices of the peace, E. G. Jones, Anton Adams.

Many of those on the ticket are democrats, being a fusion combination.

Corn for the Famine District.

Van Alstyne, Tex., Oct. 7.—Over 100 cars of corn have been shipped from this place to the famine district of Mexico. All the corn shellers are running night and day to make room for the immense amount of corn coming in daily. Cotton is coming in lively, over 300 bales were received to-day.

THE New CANTON STALK CUTTER

We were the first manufacturers to introduce STALK CUTTERS, and have kept abreast of the times with modern IMPROVEMENTS. They are a valuable implement, preparing the ground for plowing, and leaving that to be turned under which ENRICHES THE SOIL. The CANTON has Spring on front end, connecting with lever, thus relieving the jerking motion from horses' necks, also giving knives a striking motion. This excellent feature is found only in the CANTON. It has HIGHEST METAL WHEELS, insuring LIGHTEST DRAFT. No Axle through centre of Reel to clog up with trash. Made with 6 Knives, so as to cut stalks short. Others have the same number of knives, but they are not properly proportioned, therefore cut the stalks same length as our 5 knife. BE LOOK OUT FOR THEM! Other points of excellence given in circular, mailed free to any address. We also manufacture Canton Clipper Plows, Volunteer and Victor Cultivators, Disc Harrows, Tricycle Sulky and Gang Plows, Grain Drills, Cotton and Corn Planters and handle Buggies, Carts, Pumps, Wind Mills, BAIN, COOPER and OLDS WAGONS.
